Ordered. That the Clerk request the concurrence of the Senate in said joint resolution.

¶37.6 PROVIDING FOR THE FURTHER CONSIDERATION OF H.R. 3732

Mr. DERRICK, by direction of the Committee on Rules, called up the following resolution (H. Res. 410):

Resolved, That at any time after the adoption of this resolution the Speaker may, pursuant to clause 1(b) of rule XXIII, declare the House resolved into the Committee of the Whole House on the State of the Union for further consideration of the bill (H.R. 3732) to amend the Congressional Budget Act of 1974 to eliminate the division of discretionary appropriations into three categories for purposes of a discretionary spending limit for fiscal year 1993, and for other purposes. All time for general debate under the terms of House Resolution 394 shall be considered as expired. After further general debate, which shall be confined to the bill and which shall not exceed one hour equally divided and controlled by the chairman and ranking minority member of the Committee on Government Operations, the bill shall be considered for amendment under the five-minute rule. It shall be in order to consider as an original bill for the purpose of amendment under the five-minute rule the amendment in the nature of a substitute recommended by the Committee on Government Operations and the Committee on Rules now printed in the bill. Said substitute shall be considered as read. No amendment to said substitute shall be in order. At the conclusion of consideration of the bill for amendment the Committee shall rise and report the bill to the House with such amendment as may have been adopted. The previous question shall be considered as ordered on the bill and amendments thereto to final passage without intervening motion except one motion to recommit with or without instructions.

When said resolution was considered.

After debate,

Mr. DERRICK moved the previous question on the resolution to its adoption or rejection.

The question being put, viva voce,

Will the House now order the previous question?

The SPEAKER pro tempore, Mr. McNULTY, announced that the yeas had it.

Mr. SOLOMON objected to the vote on the ground that a quorum was not present and not voting.

A quorum not being present,

The roll was called under clause 4, rule XV, and the call was taken by electronic device.
